

Nonviolence International invites you to make history!
Cultural Encounters and Peace Trip to Iran
An affordable travel opportunity June 29th - July 9th

Iran is home to 85 million people with an ancient history and culture. Iranians are eager to meet Americans to further mutual understanding and find common ground during these critical times. Join this unprecedented trip to open dialogue between Iranians and Americans who seek a peaceful future between our peoples.

Explore a fascinating country...

The trip will bring participants to the cities of Shiraz, Isfahan, and Tehran. You will have a chance to visit an ancient world riddled with mosaic mosques, enchanting palaces, and medieval fortresses.

Forge new friendships...

Participants will meet with Iranian war veterans as well as share ideas and build memories with Iranians engaged in music/art/film, and community service, all towards improving cross-cultural understanding.

Experience a vibrant culture...

Iran is home to an incredible ethnic, cultural and religious diversity, as witnessed in its many museums and popular sites like Tehran's Grand Bazaar.

Delegation will include Dr. Mubarak Awad, founder of Nonviolence International, and Medea Benjamin, founder of Code Pink!

Total Trip cost : $2900 including airfare & visa fee
Limited Scholarships Available for students!